

Asbury Hills Camp & Retreat Center is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy property for our employees and for all of our guests. As such, we are closely monitoring the ongoing COVID-19 outbreak according to the guidelines and recommendations of the CDC, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and we are advising our employees and guests to follow the public health authorities' guidance regarding hygiene and personal travel.

We are asking that any guest who exhibits flu-like symptoms and/or COVID-19 symptoms as stated by the CDC to stay home and consult with a medical professional.

I do confirm that I have no one in my group that has experienced the following in the last 14 days:

- Fever
- Cough
- Shortness of breath
- On the day of travel to Asbury Hills does not have a temperature of 100.4 degrees or higher

If any of my group members begin to have these symptoms, we are asking that the group leader seek to get medical attention off property.
